

Financial Controller

The organisation:

Yang Ming (Netherlands) BV is located in Waalhaven, Rotterdam and is a wholly owned subsidiary of Yang Ming Marine Transport Corp. in Taiwan.

Function:

We are currently looking for a fulltime Financial Controller responsible for daily administrative works, accounting reporting and compliance control, daily administrative works and more.

Responsibilities:

- Download payment information from the bank and update this in our own accounting system
- Update daily cash book, conduct daily and monthly bank reconciliations and send reports to the Group treasury department
- Assist with month-end and year-end closing tasks including preparation for balance sheet, income statement and cash flow report
- Monitor the difference between invoice amount and booking amount and report to finance manager
- Assist with annual audit
- Assist with other ad hoc works assigned by management and by HQ financial management
- Assist with administrative tasks assigned by management
- Monitor operational costs and make budget - costs analysis and the profitability analysis
- Assist with corporate income tax return preparation

Qualifications:

- Preferable Finance/Accounting degree or equivalent qualification
- Familiar with the Dutch GAAP and IFRS
- Fluent in English and Dutch and few years relevant experience in container shipping or logistics industry will be a plus
- Experience with tax compliance and statutory audits
- Efficient with Microsoft Office, especially Excel
- Organized, flexible, team player and good time management

We offer:

A varied and challenging job with a competitive salary, good fringe benefits and the opportunity to attend work-related training courses.

Interested?

If you are passionate about shipping and would like to be part of Yang Ming family, please send your Cover letter and Resume both in English and Dutch to our Human Resources Section at hr@nl.yangming.com.