■ Customer Notice – NYK DELPHINUS - General Average Declared

JUL 2, 2021

Dear Valued Customers,

Further to our Customer Advisory dated June 18, 2021, General Average was declared for the vessel NYK Delphinus after encountering a fire incident.

Unfortunately, no further information available regarding the status of the containers/cargo from last update. We will share once more information is made available.

All customers are reminded to post General Average Security and the necessary documents to ensure the cargo's release. Please note that a list of secured cargo is available on Adjuster's casualty website.
