

NOTICE

■ Customer Advisory- Yang Ming's statement of Qatar shipment

12 June, 2017

Dear valued customer:

Considering the situation in Middle East region, we regret the inconvenience that has caused and we may declare Force Majeure for Qatar shipments if situation remains. We assure that all necessary actions will be taken to deliver your cargo. The following are the updated development for your reference:

1. We have temporarily suspended all new fresh booking from/to Qatar with immediate effect.
2. For on-the-way shipment (including those waiting for tranship), we'll try to fulfill our responsibilities but need your kind understanding that extra cost incurred will be at customer's account.

We deeply appreciated your kind understanding of this critical situation and continued support. If you still have any questions or need more information, please contact CBME at cbme@yangming.com.

Thanks and best regards,

Commercial Group
Yang Ming Marine Transport Corp.